SECOND DAY—Thursday.

Trinity Methodist Church,
Sumter, S. C., November 26, 1914.

Conference was called to order at 9:30 this morning, Bishop Collins Denny in the chair.

Opening devotions were conducted by J. B. Traywick.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

On motion of E. O. Watson, the roll of absentees was called, hereafter roll call to be dispensed with.

Thirty-one clerical and fifteen lay members, not present yesterday, answered to roll call.

Geo. C. Hodges was substituted for J. F. Epting, lay delegate from Cokesbury District.

Leave of absence was granted J. A. Bledsoe to attend funeral in his charge.

S. O. Cantey asked the prayers of the members of the Conference in behalf of a sister who is dangerously ill.

Bishop Denny presented the following in answer to questions of law submitted to him yesterday by P. B. Wells:

RULING OF BISHOP DENNY ON QUESTIONS OF LAW.

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which met in Oklahoma City, Okla., last May, made it the duty of the South Carolina Conference at its next session to fix the line of division so as to make two Conferences in the State of South Carolina. (See Journal of the General Conference of 1914, pages 341-342.)

A resolution was offered at the South Carolina Conference, November 25, 1914, defining a line, and to this resolution an amendment was proposed.

In immediate connection with resolution and amendment, the following questions of law were submitted to the chair:

"Whereas, The Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which is the law of our Church, upon the matter of boundaries of our Annual Conferences, makes the following declaration: Who shall determine the number and boundaries of the Annual Conferences? Answer: The General Conference."

"1st. Is it competent for the General Conference to divide an Annual Conference without at the same time fixing the line of division?"

"2d. Is it legal for the General Conference to commit to an Annual Conference its prerogative of fixing the boundaries of Annual Conferences?"

One answer can be given to these two questions: The determination of the unconstitutionality of an act of the General Conference has been committed by our Church to the entire College of Bishops, who must present to the Conference which passed said rule or regulation their objections thereto with their reasons in writing. No single Bishop has authority to pass on a question touching the constitutionality of an act of the General Conference. (See paragraph 43, Discipline, 1914.)

The third question presented to the chair is as follows:

"3d. If it be legal for the General Conference to commit to an Annual Conference its prerogative for fixing the boundaries of an Annual Conference, does not that open to the fullest deliberation and discussion, and to separate testing of any proposed line of division which will fix the boundaries of an Annual Conference?"

The question is hypothetical, and by the law of our Church the Bishop has no authority to give a legal decision of a hypothetical question. (See paragraph 635, Discipline, 1914.)

The fourth question is as follows:

"4th. If it be legal for the General Conference to authorize an Annual Conference to fix boundaries, is it not competent for such Conference to order that no line be fixed except upon a separate and distinct vote upon that line itself?"

It is competent for the Conference to make that order.

The fifth question is as follows:

"5th. If when a General Conference authorizes an Annual Conference to fix boundaries no proposed line can secure a fair majority voted upon by itself, will not the matter of division fail without any direspect to the governing body of our Church?"

No division of this Conference can take place till some proposed line of division shall receive a majority of the votes cast. Should no proposed line secure a majority of the votes cast the whole question must be referred to the next General Conference.

(Signed) Collins Denny,
Bishop in Charge.

Sumter, S. C., November 25, 1914.

The hour for the special order to consider resolutions concerning the line of division of the South Carolina Conference having arrived, W. L. Gray offered the following as a substitute for the resolutions pending before the Conference:

Resolved, That this Conference appoint a committee of three preachers and two laymen to draft a memorial to be presented to the next session, 1915, of the South Carolina Conference, praying the General Conference to rescind its action in dividing the South Carolina Conference.

P. B. Wells seconded the motion of W. L. Gray to substitute this resolution for the pending paper fixing a line of division and agreeing upon terms of division. The substitute was discussed by D. M. McLeod, W. P. B. Kinard, A. H. Best against, and W. L. Gray, W. B. Duncan and J. S. Beasley for.

On motion of R. E. Turnipseed, a yea and nay vote was taken and the substitute was lost by a vote of 130 nays to 122 yeas.

W. L. Gray moved that the fixing of a line of division be indefinitely postponed. J. C. Chandler moved to lay the motion to indefinitely postpone on the table. The motion to lay on the table was lost. The motion to postpone indefinitely was lost.

The following resolution, offered by P. B. Wells, was, on motion of D. M. McLeod, laid on the table:

Resolved, That every line of division of this Conference that may be proposed shall be voted upon separately, an aye and nay vote being taken upon each line.

R. E. Turnipseed was recognized as having the floor for the discussion of the special order fixing a line of division, the question being upon the amendment offered by him. R. E. Turnipseed yielded the floor to Jno. O. Willson, who moved that further discussion of the question be postponed until 11 o'clock tomorrow in order to give opportunity to receive the class to be admitted into full connection, that these might have opportunity to vote on the question. S. A. Weber moved to lay the motion to postpone to a fixed hour on the table. The motion to table was lost and the motion to postpone discussion until 11 o'clock tomorrow prevailed.

M. L. Banks, for the Presiding Elders, a nominating committee, presented the following nominations for the special committee, to whom shall be referred all plans for the management and control of the Southern Christian Advocate: J. L. Stokes, J. H. Roberts, J. M. Fridy, I. N. Eubanks, J. L. Tyler, W. L. Gray, C. C. Derrick, W. F. Cross, W. B. Duncan, T. M. Whisonant, C. C. Herbert, Charlton DuRant. REPORTS.

Board of Education.

The Board of Education has received reports from all of our colleges and schools, and has given thorough consideration to all the facts and requests. We find that all of our institutions are affected, more or less, by the financial depression of the country, but we are glad to note the fine spirit of hopefulness and courage with which the officials of the institutions are facing this difficulty.

President Snyder, of Wofford, says in his report: "Up to the first of August everything seemed to promise an enrollment so large as to have taxed to the utmost our resources. But, with the breaking out of the great war, it soon appeared that our patronage would be seriously affected. And such proved to be the case." And this applies to all of our institutions.

Wofford College.—The session of Wofford College, 1913-1914, shows the largest enrollment in the history of the College, the number of students being 518—334 in the College and 184 in the Fitting School. For the present session the number enrolled is 404—289 in the College and 115 in the Fitting School. There are 19 professors. The grounds, buildings and equipment are valued at $600,750.00, and the endowment amounts to $188,154, with a loan fund of $9,000.00. There is an indebtedness of $51,846.00.

Columbia College.—Considering the general conditions, Columbia has had a good opening. Already 215 have been enrolled, with 20 teachers. The value of the grounds, buildings and equipment is $245,900.00, with an indebtedness as follows: Bonds, $60,000.00; floating debt, $40,000.00. There are scholarships amounting to $7,500.00.

Lander College.—The session of Lander College, 1913-1914, was very successful indeed, the attendance reaching 283 and 39 graduating. The enrollment to date in the present session is 171. There are 22 teachers. The value of the property is $149,150.00, with an indebtedness of $41,800.00. The endowment is $6,100.00.

Carlisle School.—Headmaster Guilds, of Carlisle School, says in his report: "We looked forward with no little anxiety to the day of opening. The opening day came, the students came, and we have the largest enrollment in the boarding department the school has yet known." He further says that those who came were only about 60 per cent. of the number applying. The school begins with an enrollment of 75 with six teachers. The property is now worth $75,000.00, with a bonded indebtedness of $4,500.00. There are three scholarships offered. We commend heartily the fine work being done by the Carlisle School.

Cokesbury Conference School.—This school is continued for this present year largely as a local school, and the attendance, numbering 36, is local. The property is valued at $6,000.00, with endowment of $1,000.00

Your Board is informed that the bequest provided for in the will of Macajah Suber, of Newberry county, to go to the Cokesbury Conference School, is now available, and we recommend that the Board of Trustees of the Cokesbury Conference School be authorized and empowered to take such action as may be necessary to secure and administer said property.

Textile Industrial Institute.—This enterprise has more than justified its establishment in the work already accomplished. It is filling a great place in our Church work. The value of the plant is $75,000.00, and there are 65 students with four teachers. This property has been conveyed in proper manner to the Church.

Connectional Interests.—Your Board has read with interest the report of the Secretary of the General Board, and we heartily endorse the plans proposed for establishing a chain of religious instruction in our colleges, but we do not deem it best to undertake this new work at this time.

We wish to commend the work of the Correspondence School, now located in Atlanta, Ga., and to urge our undergraduates to avail themselves of the splendid opportunities offered by this department.

In reference to the work of the Educational Commission appointed by the last General Conference, we offer the following statement for adoption:

The South Carolina Conference has endeavored to keep informed of the late movements of our Church in the matter of Christian education. It was surprised and grieved at the loss of Vanderbilt University by the decision of the Supreme Court of Tennessee. It followed with keen interest the debates of the last General Conference on Vanderbilt, and read the message of our Bishops to said Conference on that question, and has marked the subsequent measures taken to supply university education under the control of our Church. It heartily approves the adoption of the Southern Methodist University at Dallas and the establishment of the Eastern University at Atlanta. It rejoices to hear of the magnificent liberality of Brother Asa Candler to the Atlanta school and to read the noble words accompanying his munificence. It was encouraged by the acceptance of the chancellorship of said university by Bishop Candler, and the formation of the faculty and opening of the school.

Amendment to Constitution.—We call the attention of the Conference to the following change in Article I of the Constitution of the Board of Education: That hereafter the Board of Education will be composed of one layman from each district and an equal number of preachers.

Recommendations.—We recommend that the Chairman and Secretary of the Board of Education of the South Carolina Conference and of the Upper South Carolina Conference be ex officio members of the Conference Educational Commission.

Nominations.—We nominate the following Trustees for our institutions of learning:

Assessments.—The assessment from the General Board of Education is $4,588.00.

We recommend an assessment of $17,500.00, to be divided as follows: Wofford College, $11,500.00; Columbia College, $4,000.00; Lander College, $2,000.00. Total assessment for education, $22,088.00.

We request the Joint Board of Finance to apportion the assessment of $2,100.00 for loan fund for ministerial students.

Appointments.—We respectfully ask the Bishop to make the following appointments: John O. Willson, President of Lander College; W. W. Daniel, President of Columbia College; D. E. Camak, President of the Textile Industrial Institute; W. I. Herbert, Commissioner of Education; Peter Stokes, Secretary of Education for the South Carolina Conference; J. R. T. Major, Secretary of Education for the Upper South Carolina Conference.

PETER STOKES, Secretary.

Educational Commission.

The Educational Commission was appointed by the Annual Conference of 1912 to prosecute the proposed plan for raising funds for our institutions of learning. In pursuance of these plans the Commission, at the session of the Conference of 1913, elected Rev. W. I. Herbert Commissioner of Education, and he, with the co-operation of the Commission, entered upon the active canvass for contributions. He has rendered his report to the Commission, and we ask the privilege of having him read this report to the Conference at this time.

The work of the Commission and Commissioner has not been without its many difficulties. First, there were difficulties in launching the movement, and then the financial depression.

The Commission wishes to express its sincere appreciation of the faithful work done by Commissioner Herbert, especially under these adverse conditions. He has labored with heroic faith and patience, and but for these conditions, familiar to us all, we believe the returns would have been many times larger.

The Commission is of the opinion that the movement to raise the proposed amount for our institutions of learning was a wise and practicable plan. It was begun and prosecuted with every promise of success until interfered with by the extraordinary financial depression now existing. While believing that it can and must be carried on to completion the Commission and Commissioner are agreed that it may be best to suspend the active canvass until conditions shall warrant its resumption. That the Commissioner shall devote his energies to impressing the cause of Christian education upon our people, securing students for our institutions, and aiding in securing full collections for education throughout the Conference.

Commissioner Herbert will be ready to resume active canvass as soon as conditions seem to warrant. He will have charge of all subscriptions already made, and make collections, or grant such extension of time for payment as may be needed.

He will also be free to render such other ministerial service as may be deemed advisable by the Executive Committee.

Epworth Orphanage.

November 20, 1914.

Dear Brethren: We beg to present herewith our annual report of Epworth Orphanage for the year 1914.

At the beginning of the Conference year 1902 there were five brick buildings and six frame structures on the campus and 100 children. Today there are 21 buildings on the campus, 14 of which are of brick, and 241 children.

The institution is supported, as you know, entirely by voluntary offerings, and has for the past twelve years and more been running on a cash basis. The support fund is largely made up of monthly five-dollar contributions by churches, Sunday schools, classes, societies, leagues and individuals. The Church has here a splendid property, worth approximately $250,000.

We report the bequest of $500 from the estate of Mrs. M. A. Hollingsworth, of Pickens, and also 849 acres of land from the estate of Bro. J. W. McLeod, of Manning.

The returns from Work Day this year have been good under the circumstances, but the regular contributions have not been so good. We emphasize as much as we can monthly gifts by all of our churches and Sunday schools, and that we build up our "special support plan" by adding to the list all Sunday schools; Wesley Bible classes, individuals, leagues and societies that will agree to pay five dollars per month. We beg all our pastors and Sunday school superintendents to co-operate with the management in financing the Orphanage. As we have no agent in the field to solicit subscriptions, we must depend upon our pastors and Sunday school superintendents throughout the Conference to aid us in our work by acting as leaders among our constituency.

The farm and garden have furnished employment for the boys and have contributed much to the support of the institution. We raise our own vegetables, potatoes and such other crops as are profitable, and keep up our own dairy of some twenty cows. The field crops, however, have been only fairly good, but have been worth much to the maintenance of our large family.

The printing office is teaching the boys the printers' trade and will pay its current expenses.

The marble yard is teaching the boys a trade that will put them in positions to earn a good living as soon as they leave the Orphanage. This department has not done as well as formerly, as the stress in money matters has very much handicapped its work.

Forty-five children have been received into the Orphanage this year and 22 have been dismissed. Of this number six have graduated, one has died and the remaining 15 have been returned to relatives. Of the six graduates, three have found employment and three are receiving further educational training by outside help. All children of school age attend school daily. Education is emphasized at the Orphanage as an important part of its work. The teachers are giving faithful attention to their duties in the several departments from the first to the tenth grades.

The Epworth Church is on the campus and is a part of the Shandon charge. The Orphanage Sunday School is among the best in the Conference; twenty-seven pupils of the Sunday School have joined the Church this year. Religious services are held twice each Sunday and religious worship is held in the chapel on week-day mornings. What is being accomplished by this religious training is known only to Him who reads our hearts.

The Agnes Irving Home, the third dormitory given by Bro. Geo. W. Williams, was completed and occupied in the early spring. We announced at last Conference the kind offer of Brother Williams to furnish means for this building, and it was then in course of erection. It has capacity for matron and 30 children.

There being some typhoid fever among the children in the early summer, the Board of Trustees at the midsummer meeting decided that a sewer system must be installed. Under the direction of the Board work was begun upon this important matter, which had been under consideration for several years. Special arrangements were made with the city and the sewer system at the Epworth Orphanage is practically completed. It cost the Orphanage a considerable outlay of money to do the work, but the step was taken no sooner than it was needed, and it was done in the interest of the health and lives of the children.

Other material improvements have been made in the way of repairs upon the several buildings.

It is with profound sorrow that we report the death of two of our Trustees this year.

Bro. Edward Ehrlich, of Columbia, Chairman of the Board, died at his home January 17, 1914. The Orphanage and all its interests lay close to his heart, and he was ever ready with his head and with his purse to advance its interests or supply its needs. Truly a noble man has gone to his reward.

Six days later death claimed Bro. J. W. McLeod, of Manning, a quiet, unassuming man, that truly loved the Orphanage. As long as his strength permitted he was a faithful attendant on the meetings of the Board. The J. W. McLeod Home (our infirmary) has stood on the campus over fourteen years a monument of his love for the orphan child.

Dr. H. W. Rice is still the faithful physician of the Orphanage and watches carefully after the health of the children. Dr. E. M. Whaley, specialist, continues to treat the diseases of the eye, ear and throat among the children. Dr. Dial, the dental surgeon, renders abundant services to the children; and all of these physicians render their services without charge. We hereby express our sincere appreciation for their efficient services, and know we voice the sentiment of our Methodism in the State.

We gratefully acknowledge the gifts of groceries, dry goods, quilts and clothing by friends of the Orphanage. We also acknowledge with gratitude the favors of the railroads in giving reduced passenger and freight rates, and the kindness of the press throughout the State in publishing without charge communications in behalf of the Orphanage.

We have sought Divine direction in managing the affairs of the Orphanage, and God has abundantly blessed it since its establishment. We feel, however, under the financial conditions which exist today we must lean hard upon His strong arm and trust in Him through His people for the continued maintenance of the Home provided for the orphan children who come to us for love and protection.

At its annual meeting on November 27, 1914, the Board of Managers unanimously re-elected Bro. W. B. Wharton Superintendent of the Orphanage, and we respectfully request Bishop Denny to reappoint him to that position.

W. J. MURRAY, Chairman;
W. H HODGES, Secretary.

American Bible Society.

It is evident from the reports made this year by the brethren of the Conference for this worthy cause that the American Bible Society has an abiding place in our hearts. While the amount in its total is not quite as large as last year, still it is very creditable, and we feel, had the money conditions been easier, the amount paid this year would have far exceeded that of any former year.

Following is the amount paid by districts:

Districts.	No. Charges.	Reports.	No Reports.	Amount.
Anderson	19	9	10	$ 26 55
Charleston	25	9	16	42 50
Cokesbury	21	8	13	31 11
Columbia	25	16	9	46 68
Florence	22	14	8	73 17
Greenville	24	19	5	85 39
Kingstree	21	13	8	60 96
Marion	22	15	7	74 88
Orangeburg	19	13	6	70 41
Rock Hill	18	11	7	40 37
Spartanburg	24	17	7	84 46
Sumter	19	9	10	20 85
Totals	259	153	106	$658 33

It will be seen from the above that Greenville District leads the Conference in the number of charges reporting and in the amount collected.

W. E. Wiggins, Chairman;
T. W. Munnerlyn, Secretary.

Board of Managers of the Southern Christian Advocate.

Your Board of Managers beg leave to submit the following report:

When the management of the affairs of your Church organ was committed to our care nine years ago the price of the Advocate was $2.00 per year and the paper had a subscription list of 6,000 with only 2,000 paid up.

Bro. S. A. Nettles was elected editor and publisher of the paper and he reduced the subscription price to $1.50 per year for individual subscribers, and in clubs to $1.00 per year each. Under this system the subscription list grew until in 1912, when the average circulation of the paper was 12,731 for the year. More than double the number of homes were receiving good and wholesome reading matter and at a less cost to them.

Conditions that prevailed throughout this year have had an influence in materially reducing the subscription list, but the number is still about 20 per cent. more than at the beginning of our term of service, and all but about 1,000 are paid up.

At a meeting of your Board held in June the publisher of the Advocate expressed a desire to be relieved of his contract to edit and publish the paper for the remaining three years of his term, and a mutual agreement was entered into, in writing, whereby he was to be relieved of further responsibility under his contract on the first day of January, 1915.

In view of this fact, and in justice to the publisher, it is but fair to call attention to the fact that there is due him on subscriptions to the Advocate, in arrearages, the sum of about $20,000, being an average of more than $2,000 per year for each year that he has published the paper.

Your Board has in no way involved the Conference in this debt, the obligations being direct between the subscribers to the paper and the publisher.

During its term of service it has been the aim of your Board to provide for the Conference an organ that would supply wholesome food for mind and soul at a moderate cost, and without involving the Conference in any degree with financial obligation therefor.

We recommend that the preachers in the Conference use their influence in having the members of their various charges, who are in arrears for their paper, make payment of the amounts before the date set for the dissolution of the contract between the Board of Managers and the publisher. Respectfully submitted,

W. P. MEADORS, Chairman;
J. W. HAMEL, Secretary.

Sumter, S. C., Nov. 25, 1914.

Committee on Southern Christian Advocate.

Your committee appointed to consider and recommend a plan for the future management of the Southern Christian Advocate, beg leave to report as follows: We recommend—

First. That a Board of Managers for the Southern Christian Advocate for the next quadrennium be elected by this Conference upon the nomination of the present Board of Education.

Second. That the said Board of Managers shall have authority during the next four years to contract for the editing and publishing of the Southern Christian Advocate for that period.

Third. That said Board of Managers enter immediately upon the discharge of their duties and that they be authorized to make due settlement of all matters pertaining to the editing and publishing of the Southern Christian Advocate prior to January 1, 1915.

J. L. STOKES, Chairman;
C. C. DERRICK, Secretary.

November 27, 1914.

Books and Periodicals.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals submits the following report:

1. Our Publishing House.—The growth of our publishing interests, as set forth by the exhibit of the publishing agents, is gratifying. At Dallas, at Richmond, and at Nashville the reports indicate progress. The present total net assets of Nashville and branch houses amount to $1,374,959.09. The net sales of the three houses for the fiscal year ending February 28, 1914, amount to $784,743.72. The profits for this period were $110,978.14, this being an increase in gain of $13,589.43 over the year immediately preceding. We note with pleasure that the Book Committee has appropriated $15,000.00 for Conference claimants.

2. Our Church Papers.—The Methodist Review now has a circulation of 4,200. This strong periodical should be taken by every preacher and by some thousands of our intelligent laymen.

The Epworth Era has a circulation of 16,000, and during the year has met the cost of publication.

The Christian Advocate easily takes rank with the best. Its present circulation of 16,500, while an increase, is not what it should be; and with effort on our part this could easily be doubled. The presence at this Conference of the Rev. T. N. Ivey, D. D., the editor, has been to us a source of both pleasure and profit.

3. The Southern Christian Advocate begins the new year under new business management and new editorial control. We wish to commend the Advocate to our South Carolina Methodism. It should be in the homes of all of our people.

P. B. Wells, Chairman;
J. C. Smith, Secretary.

Sunday School Board—No. 1.

There are many problems before us as a Church. We are depending largely upon the Sunday School for their solution. God has signally blessed us in the past. We are depending upon Him for future counsel and strength.

Five years ago the South Carolina Conference began a work which has made her a leader in Sunday School development.

At the Abbeville Conference the occasion and the man met. Under the leadership of Bro. J. M. Way, 515 Wesley classes have been organized and registered, hundreds of cradle rolls and home departments have been organized, training classes are being held, and there is now a Conference-wide movement to bring all our schools up to the adopted "standard of efficiency." Your Board here wishes to thank the presiding elders and the pastors for their hearty and wise co-operation in making possible this success. Standing as we do among the pioneers and leaders in modern Sunday School activity, South Carolina Methodism cannot afford to take a backward step. That Church which neglects this vital work will suffer in every direction. At least 85 per cent. of our membership comes through the Sunday School.

Special Days.—Children's Day is being more generally observed. The collections are as large this year as last. We request every pastor to see that every Sunday School in his charge observes Children's Day in 1915. This Board, through its Field Secretary's office, will furnish free programs to every pastor. We urge our preachers and other leaders to begin early, as the General Conference has appointed the last Sunday in April as Children's Day.

Rally Day should be observed the last Sunday in September, or as near thereto as possible.

We wish to stress the importance of Decision Day, and suggest that one day in every revival meeting be used as Decision Day. Let us all make a strenuous effort to secure more members for our Sunday schools, hold them, save them, and train them to serve.

We urge our Wesley Bible classes to be fully represented at the Wesley Class Federation at Spartanburg in July, 1915.

The large number of well-equipped Sunday School buildings erected this year is very gratifying. Our people when erecting a Church will find it exceedingly profitable to consider the needs of the Sunday School.

We are pleased to note the advanced legislation of the General Conference for Sunday schools. The General Sunday School Board has been enlarged from six to twenty-six members, with a Bishop as chairman, and has provided for a Sunday School policy which will equal in breadth and scope that of any denomination in the South.

No advancement has been more marked than that in our periodical literature, the total circulation of which is now more than 2,000,000 copies. At the beginning of 1915 some new periodicals will appear, while others are to be enlarged and improved.

We respectfully ask that the Conference continue to levy an assessment equal to 1 per cent. of assessment for preacher in charge; that the same be collected in the early part of the year and forwarded to the Treasurer of the Sunday School Board. We also ask that you direct the Joint Board of Finance to apportion this assessment to the districts.

After much prayer and deliberation your Board unanimously requests the Bishop to appoint W. C. Owen as Sunday School Field Secretary for South Carolina Methodism.

We also respectfully ask the Bishop to appoint L. F. Beaty Assistant Sunday School Editor.

L. F. BEATY, Chairman;
J. R. WALKER, Secretary.

Sunday School Board—No. 2.

Your Sunday School Board has planned its activities for the next quadrennium in such a manner as to make only one Field Secretary for the South Carolina and the Upper South Carolina Conferences necessary in carrying on the work. Both Conferences, working together, will not be at all burdened with the support of one Sunday School Secretary, whereas to have a Secretary for each Conference would be burdensome at this time.

We, therefore, ask that the Conference authorize and direct the Sunday School Boards for the South Carolina Conference and the Upper South Carolina Conference to take such steps as may be necessary to continue our Sunday School work as in the past, employing only one Sunday School Secretary for the two Conferences.

L. F. BEATY, Chairman;
J. R. WALKER, Secretary.

Epworth League.

The past year has been one of more than ordinary success in Epworth League work. The unwearied activity of our Field Secretary, Miss Sallie Bell Watt, has brought encouraging returns. During the year seven senior and four junior chapters have been organized. At present there are 89 active, healthy chapters in the State, aggregating a membership of 3,139. During the year the above chapters have raised for all purposes $2,246.60; of this amount $198.39 has been given for missions. These figures show a considerable increase in League contributions.

We are glad to report an enlarged program for missions. Mission study courses are being organized throughout the State. The League Conference at its last session pledged $750.00 to the "African Special."

The twenty-first Annual League Conference was held at Bethel Church, Charleston, June 10-14. The attendance was excellent and the interest encouraging. J. C. Smith was elected President for the ensuing year. The office of Field Secretary, which was created at Chester two years ago, was continued with Miss Sallie Bell Watt as Secretary.

The President, Secretary and other State officers beg that this report embody an earnest plea on their part for the continued and increased co-operation of the pastors in this great work. Never before has there been a more urgent call to the young life of our Church to enlist and enter the Master's service. The existence of the League is an effort on the part of the Church to lay the hand of availability on the mighty forces of young life, which, in many places, are running to waste. As the training school of the Church the Epworth League merits the hearty co-operation of all who are interested in the coming of Christ's kingdom.

In full view of the greater good possible in the future your Board begs the privilege of making the following recommendations:

1st. The observance by every Epworth League of Anniversary Day, on the second Sunday in May, using the service program prepared by the central office.

2d. That a series of League Institutes be held throughout the Conference, conducted by the secretaries, aided by Miss Watt and Nashville headquarters.

3d. A plea to make the 1915 League Conference the greatest in the history of the organization, soliciting the support and presence of pastors in particular.

G. C. Leonard, President;
A. E. Driggers, Secretary.

Sabbath Observance.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance beg leave to submit the following:

That there is a growing looseness concerning the proper observance of the Sabbath is very evident. Our material prosperity seems to furnish the spirit and occasion for such breaches of the law as threaten our Christian civilization. The need of the Sabbath as a day of rest and religious observance is written in our bodies and our temporal interests. "The Sabbath was made for man," and man should use it and not abuse it. Its proper observance lies at the very foundation of the Church and of all Christian evangelism. Destroy that and the Church can never advance, but must retrograde. The decay of Christian evangelism marks those countries where the holy Sabbath was, and is, made a day of dissipation and pleasure. To such we seem to be drifting, and unless the tendency is arrested "Ichabod" will be written over the doors of the Church of Christ.

In evidence of this, we note that frequently the Church is almost deserted of worshippers, while those most needing the blessings of the sanctuary are using the prevailing modes of travel—railways, trolley cars and automobiles—to make it a day spent in a way destructive of all religious impressions. We would, therefore, urge our pastors and lay members of this Conference to create a strong sentiment in their churches looking toward a stricter observance of this holy day by our people. Inasmuch as the pulpit is one of the strongest agencies in arousing a conscience on any moral line, we ask our pastors to preach on the subject at least once during the coming year. The next strongest agency is the press. The county paper generally opens its columns to the preacher and always welcomes articles on timely subjects. Surely, there is no subject that is more vital than this one. May we not, therefore, ask each pastor to contribute an article to his town or county paper calling attention to the people of the growing tendency of this evil.

In conclusion, we wish to say that we note with pleasure the movement that is being waged in the capital city of our State to enforce the laws of the Sabbath by the municipal authorities; and we sincerely hope that every town and city of South Carolina will fall in line with Columbia and help in this onward movement of righteousness.

C. B. Smith, Chairman;
F. L. Glennan, Secretary.

Temperance.

The question of the traffic in, and use of, intoxicating liquors continues to perplex and distress our State. The Church stands now, as heretofore, squarely and unalterably opposed to the whole liquor traffic and opposed to the use, moderately or immoderately, of whiskey as a beverage.

We urge upon our members their duty as citizens and as Christians to use every lawful means at their command to enforce the prohibitory laws we have. The blind tiger is an outlaw and it is the Christian duty of every child of God to combat this greatest agency of the evil one. The greatest obstacle to prohibition has been, and is, the privilege of free shipment of liquor from one State to another and the exemption of this commerce from interference. The national government has, by the enactment of the Webb law, provided a way for each State to regulate these shipments, and as a Conference we would urge upon our legislators that they enact such laws upon this subject as will make prohibition effective in our State.

The dispensary has proven, by many years of drunkenness, crime and corruption, to be one of the most damnable agencies of the liquor business, and the time now is when our people should be rid of the whole triffic; we, therefore, put this Church on record as favoring State-wide prohibition and the outlawing of the business in every shape and form by immediate legislative enactment.

We are glad to note the progress prohibition is making throughout the United States. Fourteen States have outlawed the traffic entirely; a number of others are demanding State-wide prohibition. Fully 80 per cent. of the territory of the nation has been voted dry.

We urge upon our ministers and laymen full co-operation with the Anti-Saloon League and the other societies and agencies which are working for national prohibition by congressional action and a constitutional amendment.

We commend the work of the Anti-Saloon League of this State and urge upon our preachers and laymen full co-operation with it and also with all other agencies and organizations whose object is the enactment of State-wide prohibition laws and the enforcement of the same.

We recommend the reappointment of Rev. J. L. Harley by the Bishop as State Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League for the ensuing year.

District Conference Journals.

Annual Conference, Sumter, S. C.:

Your committee has examined each of the twelve District Journals and find them all well kept—neatly and businesslike.

We noticed in one of the Journals—Anderson District—several important reports are pasted in the book instead of being recorded.

We do not think this a safe system of preserving the records, and we recommend that all reports be recorded as the Discipline requires.

Respectfully submitted,

Minutes.

Your Committee on Minutes begs to submit the following report:

MEMOIRS.

Nathaniel Bowen Clarkson.

Rev. Nathaniel Bowen Clarkson was born on John's Island, S. C., September 23, 1839, and fell on sleep June 1, 1914, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Allen Huggins, of Florence, S. C.

Brother Clarkson was the youngest child of Dr. W. N. and Margaret O. Clarkson. His parents were members of the Episcopal Church and it was in this Church that he was consecrated to God in baptism. He was reared in this Church by a consecrated Christian mother, to whom he was largely indebted for the success he achieved in after life.

Our brother was educated in various common schools and academies, and also spent a while at Wofford College preparatory school, but, like many other worthy young men of his time, his education was cut short by the War Between the States. He served through this war, most of his time as assistant engineer on works around Charleston, S. C., and with Gen. Joseph E. Johnson's engineer corps in Georgia. He was faithful during all his army life as he was in his later life as a minister of Christ.

Brother Clarkson was married on December 31, 1862, to Miss Laura V. Gordon, of Williamsburg county, S. C. To this union was born nine children, five of whom are still living: Rev. G. Floyd Clarkson, Mrs. J. Allen Huggins, Thos. B. Clarkson, Miss Anna Clarkson, and D. Marvin Clarkson.

In early life Brother Clarkson felt a call to preach, but resisted, shrinking from the awful and solemn duties of the office. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Sumter, S. C., in 1851, under the preaching of the Rev. Colin Murchison. The call of God to preach came so strongly and so insistently that he was forced to yield. He was licensed to preach at the first quarterly conference of the Gourdin's circuit at Asbury Chapel, March 14, 1877, Rev. W. C. Power, presiding elder. His active ministry was begun as supply on Gourdin's and Sampit circuits. He was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference at Marion, S. C., December, 1880; ordained deacon by Bishop William Wightman at Charleston, S. C., January 4, 1881; and on December 21, 1884, ordained elder by Bishop Holland N. McTyeire at Charleston, S. C.

Personally Brother Clarkson was a man of the highest type of Christian character. He was a Christian gentleman in every sense of the word. His neatness in dress and personal appearance was an index to his soul. No coarse expression ever passed his lips. He had nothing but kind words and kind wishes for his brethren. His was a loving and lovable soul and those who knew him best loved him most. To know him was to love him.

Brother Clarkson was an excellent preacher. Of close studious habits, his sermons were always instructive and helpful. His style was simple, plain, straightforward, and logical. He knew Christ experimentally and loved to tell the "old, old story of Jesus and His love." The last Sunday but one of Brother Clarkson's life was spent in the pulpit.

As a pastor he was faithful, as a friend true. This world is better because this gentle, sweet-spirited, Christian man has lived in it. He has fought the good fight, he has finished his course, he has kept the faith; therefore, we trust and believe that he has received his crown.

Geo. C. Leonard.

W. B. Baker.

Rev. William Bennett Baker was born in Marion county, November 1, 1841, and departed this life March 5, 1914, after a lingering illness of several months.

Brother Baker did not have the opportunity of acquiring a finished education on account of the War Between the Sections. He bravely answered the call of his State, serving gallantly throughout the entire four years, thus depriving himself of attending college.

From early boyhood, young Baker felt that preaching would be his life's work, and while making the charge at Bull Run and retreating at Appomattox this impression was still fixed in his mind. In 1860. he was soundly converted, and it was not long after this that he heard the unmistakable call to the ministry. To this he did not yield at once, but under the effects of a powerful sermon preached by the Rev. J. M. Boyd, he made the final decision, and was admitted to the South Carolina Conference at Charleston, in December, 1884.

For twenty-nine years, Brother Baker faithfully and diligently served his Master, preaching as a dying man to a dying people. His sermons were purely evangelical, and were delivered with such force and power that during his ministry multitudes of people were caused to repent of their sins and live Christlike lives. During this time, he served the following appointments: Bayboro circuit, 1885-86; Johnsonville circuit, 1887-89; Lake City circuit, 1890-91-92-93; Scranton circuit, 1894; Lamar circuit, 1895; Green Street and Brookland, Columbia, 1896-97-98; Brightsville circuit, 1899-1900-01-02; Blenheim circuit, 1903-04-05-06; Latta circuit, 1907-08-09-10; North Mullins, 1911; Timmonsville, 1912.

Our dear brother was faithful until the end, filling appointments until just a few months before his death. He preached his last sermon at Old Johnsonville church, though frail in body, but strong in mind. He was a true hero, for he stood firm in his convictions, never shirking his duty, and was always ready to answer the call of any one in need or distress. And so having made his last round and having fought his last battle, this child of God stood ready to answer the summons triumphantly.

P. B. INGRAHAM.

George McPherson Boyd—1837-1914.

"When the day of Pentecost was fully come," "There were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men out of every nation under heaven." Here is the principle of "spiritual," if not "natural selection," and the fact that it was picked men from all lands that furnished the converts for that occasion had much to do with the immediate, phenomenal spread of the kingdom.

George McPherson Boyd was the son of the widely known and much beloved Methodist local preacher, Mark M. Boyd, and his wife, Elizabeth Epting. An older brother preceded him into the itinerant ministry and a younger one followed him, while other members of the family possessed spiritual gifts that made them signally useful. George Boyd, therefore, came of good stock.

Born in Newberry county, September 17th, 1837, and educated in the countrly schools, he joined the South Carolina Conference in December, 1870. For thirty-four years he served circuits and stations in various parts of the State until failing health compelled his superannuation in 1904. Then for nearly ten years at his little home in Spartanburg, in much weakness and affliction, he demonstrated that "They also serve who wait."

It was my good fortune to be his junior preacher on the Bennettsville circuit in 1889. As a man and as a minister I knew him intimately, and I pay sincere tribute to the beautiful character of the one, and the great usefulness of the other. His character was transparent. Gentle, retiring, modest, he was never assertive of his own rights, but illustrated the "love that seeketh not its own." Affectionate and warm-hearted in disposition, and bright and genial in spirit, he laid his attractive social gifts under tribute in his pastoral work to win men for his Lord.

I had the best of opportunities to know him as a preacher, and I knew him to be strong and effective. His analytical power was unique, his development of his text always original, all his utterances bore the stamp of his own individuality, and the people always heard him gladly. He was a man of great faith, who depended implicitly on the enduement of the Holy Spirit for results in his ministry. He was perhaps at his best in revival meetings, where he often preached with great power as well as tenderness, and possessed as few men have the power of persuading men to accept Christ. And so signally did God honor his ministry, it was given him to receive more than twenty-five hundred people into the membership of the Church.

The preachers that make up a Methodist Conference constitute a close-knit brotherhood. Chosen by the Church's one Great Head, prosecuting the same holy calling, actuated by the same high motives, and struggling toward the same home at last, they share each other's struggles and enter into each other's joys and sorrows very much as children in the same home. When George Boyd joined the South Carolina Conference he entered this brotherhood as a loyal member. He never sought the easy places, if there be such. Many of his fields were large and difficult, but he received all his Conference assignments without complaining. When he laid his armor down there passed over the river another of the men whose lives have contributed to the splendid history and honored traditions of our Church. He was one of those who with gentleness of life and strength of faith established the Church in the rural districts of South Carolina, when the conditions under which his ministry was performed offered few of the conveniences and comforts of the present day. Of those earnest men who labored with him nearly a half century ago, few now survive, but their deeds live after them, and their examples of flaming zeal and self-sacrifice are the priceless heritage of the Church of today.

Brother Boyd was twice married—first to Miss Mary Jane Thompson, of Newberry county, and then to Miss Corrinne Anderson, of Laurens. Seven children were born of the first marriage and one of the last. His last years were quietly spent in Spartanburg, where those who came to know him as a veteran of the cross, who had borne his burden in his day, and watched his patient and beautiful submission to affliction, cherish the memory of his gentleness and kindness, and are strengthened in their faith by the example of his Christian faith. And there surrounded by all his family on the afternoon of September 28th, as peacefully as an infant falling asleep in its mother's arms, he passed to his reward.

"Servant of God, well done; Rest from thy loved employ."
